Inside AND ON ZOOM - Trinity Sunday, on this Sunday we will go back to the beginning to see where it all started. The first chapter of Genesis that captures the seven-day creation story was one of the last story/poems written of the five books of Moses (the Pentateuch). It was a reminder to those exiled and dispersed by Babylon that the world was created in goodness and to hold to the Sabbath to keep their identity and their sanity. How do we live this out today in a world that going 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year? How do we rest
