

Worship Team meeting via Zoom 4/5/23

Attendees: Enno Limvere, Ann Russ, Linda Noble, Jenny Delfs (recorder)

Sound system/recording

- New blue tooth mic purchased for meetings.
- New speaker to replace Enno's speaker we have been using – With this speaker, Zoom participants could be heard if they wanted to participate and computer operator can check sound
- Lyrics for hymns need to be part of Zoom broadcast - they are in the bulletin posted on web site. Add back song leaders to help sound for hymns.

Music

- Ann gone last 3 Sundays in April - she has picked music for 4/30 and gave music to Naomi – need to find something for other 2 – Linda will look. Blue Boat Home is option for Earth Day Sunday 4/23. Jenny will send to Linda

Sign-ups of Lay Leadership

- Continue to ask for liturgist/peace candle volunteers via email. Keep reminding folks that anyone can do this. Occ pull in peace candle person last minute if needed.
- Need to walk around after service or pass sign up sheet with offering for greeters/ushers. No one signed up in April so far.
- Communion – Linda will pick up supplies and has bread ready. Don invited to bake.
- Sound /Camera/ computer operator – short bench and dedicated volunteers

Worship

- Rooted and Rising group may help with Earth Day
- Strip sanctuary Maundy Thurs service - leave cranes down till Pentecost.
- Easter Sunday put up banners during first hymn – pageantry.
- Identify funeral banner.

Old Business

- Blue Grass Service end of June proposed – Enno will coordinate with Karina
- Covid Protocols – no change – keep having communion with cups.
- “Palms” for next year Palm Sunday.

New Business

- Summer worship –discussion about how much outside or not. Most prefer inside. Socialize outside after service
- Make job outlines for lay leader positions detailing task. Bruce Tyler will work on that. Most critical one now is for communion set up.
- Jazz service late Oct 1st – it is also World Communion Sunday
- Worship June 11 Matin Choir and Special Speaker – Mathew from Out Front – Harbor Park on stage set up for Pride event that weekend.
